

NEW ZEALAND COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION

TRANS-TASMAN MUTUAL RECOGNITION ADMISSION REGULATIONS 2008

Made pursuant to section 274(f)(ii) of the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act 2006

(consolidated 1 June 2011)

1. Title, Commencement and Definitions

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Admission Regulations 2008.
- (2) These regulations shall come into force on the first day of January 2009.
- (3) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires –

“Applicant” means a person seeking to gain admission as a barrister and solicitor under section 49(4) of the Act

“the Act” means the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act 2006

“Deemed registration” has the same meaning as in section 24 of the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997

“Law Society” means the New Zealand Law Society

“Participating Jurisdiction” has the same meaning as in section 3 of the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997

“Registrar” means the Registrar of the High Court at the place where the notice is given, or intended to be given

“TTMRA” means the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition Act 1997.

2. Notice

- (1) Every applicant shall give to the Registrar written notice in accordance with section 19 of the TTMRA.
- (2) The notice shall be in duplicate.
- (3) The notice must be in the form set out in Schedule 1 of these regulations.
- (4) The Registrar shall forthwith send the duplicate copy of the notice to the Executive Director of the Law Society.

3. Affidavit in Support of Notice

- (1) Every applicant who gives the Registrar written notice in accordance with section 19 of the TTMRA shall file with the notice an affidavit in the form set out in Schedule 2 of these regulations.
- (2) If no copy of the applicant’s passport is annexed to the notice of application, the applicant shall exhibit sufficient supporting evidence as to the applicant’s identity to satisfy the Registrar of that identity.

4. Assessment of Notice

- (1) Unless the applicant provides the original of the instrument evidencing the applicant's existing registration in Australia, the Registrar must, as soon as practicable after receiving the notice, make inquiries or exchange information with relevant authorities in all relevant participating jurisdictions to satisfy himself or herself of the validity and veracity of all matters and information contained in the notice pertaining to the applicant's existing registration in Australia.
- (2) For the purposes of s 14(1) of the TTMRA, registration authorities shall assess whether the New Zealand occupation applied for is an occupation equivalent to the applicant's Australian occupation in accordance with the criteria set out in Schedule 3 of these regulations.
