

PROFESSIONAL LEGAL STUDIES
COURSE ACCREDITATION REGULATIONS 2006
AMENDMENT, NO 2

- 1. Name and Commencement
- 2. Monitoring Visits
- 3. Outcome of Provider Monitoring Report and Visit

1. Name and Commencement

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Professional Legal Studies Course Accreditation Regulations 2006, Amendment No 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Professional Legal Studies Course Accreditation Regulations 2006 (referred to as the principal regulations).
- (2) These Regulations shall come into force on 1 December 2007.

2. Monitoring Visits

- (1) The principal regulations are amended by inserting in regulation 38.1, after the word “Provider” in the last sentence, the words “, such visits to take place, unless a monitoring visit is specifically requested by the Council, in January 2009, and thereafter only on every second anniversary of the commencement of the Initial or Renewed Accreditation Period, as the case may be”.
- (2) The principal regulations are amended by inserting a new regulation 38.4 to read: “In any year in which a monitoring visit is not required under regulation 38.1, the Accreditation Committee, on receiving the Provider Monitoring Report, may request further written material, and/or guest access to online material, and seek such other further written or oral information from a Provider as the Committee thinks fit.”

3. Outcome of Provider Monitoring Report and Visit

- (1) The principal regulations are amended in regulation 39.1 by deleting the first sentence and substituting the sentence: “Within 21 working days of the receipt of the Provider Monitoring report (or, in the case of a year when a Monitoring Visit occurs under regulation 38.1, within 21 working days of the last date of the Monitoring Visit), the Accreditation Committee or its nominees will issue a draft report (Accreditation Monitoring Report) which will state the outcome of the monitoring process and provide comments about the course.”
