

Professional Legal Studies
Course Regulations 2004
Amendment, No 2

1. Name and Commencement
2. Re-Admission Committee
3. Schedule

1. Name and Commencement

- (1) These regulations may be cited as the Professional Legal Studies Course Regulations 2004, Amendment No 2, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the Professional Legal Studies Course Regulations 2004 (referred to as the principal regulations.)
- (2) These regulations shall come into force on 1 November 2006.

2. Re-Admission Committee

The principal regulations are amended by revoking regulation 20 and substituting the following –

- (1) There shall be a Re-admission Committee appointed by the Council of Legal Education and constituted from time to time as necessary, which shall comprise –
 - (a) the Chair of the Council of Legal Education
 - (b) two other persons nominated by the Chair of the Council of Legal Education, one of whom must be a law practitioner and the other of whom must be a law teacher.
- (2) A trainee who is unsuccessful on an appeal to the Assessment Appeals Committee under regulation 19 may appeal to the Re-admission Committee.
- (3) A trainee who wishes to apply for an appeal must -
 - (a) apply in writing to the Re-admission Committee within 21 days of the date the intake finishes, and
 - (b) enclose the fee prescribed by and payable to the Council of Legal Education.
- (4) The Re-admission Committee, which may consider any of the relevant grounds set out in regulation 19(2) or any other ground raised by the trainee on appeal to the Re-admission Committee, may:

- (a) grant the trainee a further opportunity to complete one or more skills assessments; or
 - (b) change the grade of assessment to Merit or Competent or, in the case of Negotiation or Advocacy assessments, change the grade to a Pass; or
 - (c) grant the trainee the opportunity to repeat the whole course; or
 - (b) decline the application.
- (5) Every decision made by the Re-admission Committee shall be final.

3. Schedule

The principal regulations are amended by adding a schedule as follows

SCHEDULE

Fee Prescribed by Regulation 20(3)(b)

$100.00